

Report on Participation in Silver Jubilee cum Foundation Day of GGSIP University, Delhi

(12th- 13th December, 2024)

The culmination of the Silver Jubilee celebrations and the Foundation Day of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU) in Delhi marks a significant milestone, reflecting 25 years of excellence in education, innovation, and holistic growth. The celebrations aim to reflect GGSIPU's legacy of academic excellence, its commitment to innovation, and its impact on shaping young minds for a brighter future. The programme was a two- days long event held on 12th & 13th December, 2024. Beautiful cultural programs, showcasing the talents of students and celebrating the university's achievements, speeches and discussions led by dignitaries, faculty, and alumni highlighting GGSIPU's growth since its inception and its vision for the future, honoring achievements, including recognizing faculty, students, and alumni for their contributions to the university and society and inauguration of initiatives, such as research programs, scholarships, or infrastructure, to set the course for the university's next phase were main attraction of the event. Mr. V. K. Saxena, the honourable Lieutenant Governor of Delhi inaugurated the programme and cherished the contribution of GGSIPU and its affiliated colleges in education, research and innovation on the day one of celebration. He also unveiled new logo of the University. Ms. Atishi Singh, the honourable Chief Minister of Delhi and Chief Guest of the day visited the stalls of exhibiting colleges.

The Institute of Vocational Studies (IVS), under the leadership of Mr. Khalid Hashmi, Director of IVS, and Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal of IVS, actively and enthusiastically participated in the celebrations. Representing the college were Dr. Parul Maheswari and Dr. Fozia Roohi, under the able guidance of Dr. Mandira Gupta. IVS highlighted the determinations and ingenuity of its students and teachers through various exhibits, including Teaching-Learning Materials developed by trainee teachers during their teaching practice, as well as beautifully crafted artisan and creative materials. The blend of origination and technology presented by IVS was personally appreciated by the Vice-Chancellor of GGSIP University as he visited the stall.

Foreign delegates from Poland showed great interest and praised the IVS exhibition. As a token of love, Dr. Mandira Gupta presented a scenic artwork to Ms. Atishi Singh, the Chief Minister of Delhi, who also visited the IVS stall and lauded the institute's contributions to the teaching profession. The IVS stall attracted significant attention from other colleges and numerous students, who were provided with information about the courses offered by the institute through videos, PPTs, and the college's information brochure. The enthusiastic participation and creative showcase by IVS were met with much appreciation and admiration.

Principal Ma'am (Dr. Mandira Gupta) received the Appreciation Certificate in recognition of the institution's commitment to excellence, innovation, and its significant contribution to higher education.

The event was a grand success, serving as a valuable platform for the college to showcase its efficient functioning and the exceptional talent of its students. Here are the glimpses of event:
