REPORT ON FRESHER'S PARTY

The development of community, society, nation and universe is dependent on educational system. But some fun is necessary in creating a good healthy education environment. So the teachers decided to organize a FRESHER'S PARTY. The students were given one day to prepare. Students of D.el.ed 1st year participated with high enthusiasm under the guidance of respected Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal, IVS. The program was organised by Dr. Fozia Roohi and Sapna Rani and the program was commenced on 20th September, 2023 i.e., Thursday. The program started at 11 a.m. by the anchors Nazreen Khatoon and Anjali Sejwal and the first program was a mesmerizing self composed group song titled "Awadh Tarana" by Nazreen, Anushka and Kehkasha followed by a beautiful group dance by the enthusiastic girls ( Kim, Mrinali, Tianna and Diya) of D.el.ed 1st year. The program goes on with a story telling by Divyanshu of D.el.ed 1st year followed by a mesmerizing solo song by Parul titled 'Kesariya' and then came the most anticipated round of Mr. And Ms. Fresher and Ms. Priyanka Gupta and Ms. Nazia were our beautiful judges for the same. The first round was ramp walk and it was made compulsory for everyone to participate in it. All the girls and boys walked on the ramp with elegance and style. This round was full of laughter, elegance and judgement. After this round group dance performance by Seerat and Iqra of D.el.ed 1st year took place. And then comes the talented Tannu with her self composed poem titled "Jashan ka Mausam" Followed by the multi talented Divyanshu with his melodious voice. The program continued with a group dance full of elegance by Suman and Shrinkhla. Now the judges announced the names of all the students who made their way to the next round i.e., Talent Hunt Round where the participants had to pick a chit from the bag and then perform the task assigned. This round was full of laughter and fun. New hidden talents can be seen rocking the stage. Once again the program forwarded with a poem recitation by Iqra followed by a solo dance of Shaina and a poem by Muskan. The students were getting anxious with each second as they were waiting for the result of the rounds performed. To break the anxiousness Ms. Fozia Roohi came forward to announce the name of the finalists and everyone showed their support for them . Ms.Fozia Roohi asked the finalists some brainstorming questions and the finalists replied very well . It was tough for the judges to evaluate the students. Everyone gave a tough competition to each other. A tensed atmosphere could be felt so to break it, the boys of D.el.ed 1st year came with their super funny Statue Dance. Everyone laughed so hard. Now was the time to announce Mr. And Ms. Fresher. Ms. Fozia Roohi cam forward and announced the name of Ms. Fresher i.e., Nazreen Khatoon and Mr. Fresher i.e., Divyanshu Arya. Dr. Mandira Gupta placed the sashes to both of them. The event ended with a rocking floor dance by both students and teachers. The progran ended with joy, laughs and full of memories

Thank you.
