Phase-II, New Delhi-110017

Session 2021-22

Best Practice-1

Adopting a village “Khidki” to educate rural women.

Khidki Village, Malviya Nagar is a Locality in North East Delhi City in Delhi State, India.
Khidki Village, Malviya Nagar Pin code is 110017 and postal head office is South Malviya Nagar

Khidki village is a sublocality in Khirki extension, South Delhi, New Delhi, India.

People of Khidki village are generally labourers, barbers, hawkers etc.

Institute of Vocational Studies adopted a village as mentioned above through a resolution passed in a meeting dated 12/11/2019, (Annexure 106).

The practice continued till 2020 but discontinued due to pandemic. Again it was continued in 2021.

Vision and mission of best Practice I

- Improve the lives of women of Rural Khidki village through education.
- Uplifting the economic Empowerment
- Acquainted themselves with basic Mathematical calculations and Basic Hindi.
- Make rural women self reliant.

The institution has taken measures to orient and educate the women. of Khidki village about the importance of basic education.

The rural women were made to familiarise with basic & Mathematic Calculation and which they can use in their daily day to day life. By knowing about the Basic mathematic calculation, they felt confident enough while calculating their daily wages.

Moreover, teachers from our institution taught them through a Questionnaire based on Basic mathematical Calculations like basic addition, subtraction, multiplication and division.

Teacher also taught rural women to form basic hindi words by adding different letters like acha, bura ,apna naam, apne pariwar ke naam etc. This helps rural women to get themselves acquainted with basic hindi words which are used in their day to day life.

This way our institution took an initiative to educate poor and deprived rural women who are deprived of Education.

Best Practice- 2

Rangoli Making

Vision And Mission of Rangoli Making

- To inculcate leadership and cooperative qualities while working together.
- To improve student's abstract thinking
- To inculcate creative, expressive, and Educational values.
- To acquaint students with the importance of colours in their life.

Rangoli making has been an essential part of Diwali celebrations in our Nation. The Rangoli colours play a big role in bringing out the festive spirit during these celebrations. Rangoli making is organised on every festival and national day in which students are encouraged to make Rangoli at the best out of their creativity.

Therefore to promote this traditional artform among our students, Every year Institute of Vocational Studies organised a Rangoli making competition, in which students were made aware of the importance of colours.

Ms. Sangeeta Kaushik incharge of Art and Drama Education conducted a Rangoli Competition among Students of B.Ed and D.El.Ed.

She told the students about the pedagogical significance of Rangoli making in college. This way students got to know the importance of colours in their life. Moreover they learnt to work collaboratively in groups.
