Alumni Meet Report

Alumni associations offer networking opportunities, which can be connecting pursuing B.Ed. Students with established professionals and help students, pursue career growth. To guide B.Ed. students with the problems and challenges they have regarding the future of the course or what the Institution has to provide, the Institute of Vocational Studies conducted an Alumni Meet under the IQAC Cell, held on 16th October, 2019, starting at 11:00 am. The event was organized under the supervision of our esteemed Principal, Dr. Mandira Gupta, and faculty In-charge of the Alumni Cell, Dr. Gulshan Mufeed.

The Institute invited keynote speakers, Pooja Khatri and Ms. Tasneem Bano, Assistant Professor at Al-Falah University, Faridabad. Both key speakers have been prestigious students at the Institute and have always extended their support to the growth and development of the Institution, as B.Ed. is one of the most prestigious career options for girls.

Pooja Khatri explained the professional opportunities in the higher education sector after completing the B.Ed. course. She helped the students understand the system and process of becoming proficient successful individuals in the field of education. Ms. Tasneem Bano talked about teacher career opportunities in India, such as working as a counselor in schools. Both keynote speakers discussed various future career options, as well as shared their personal experiences and ideas. Following that, a question-and-answer session was conducted. It was a beneficial and fruitful session for the students.
