

INSTITUTE OF VOCATIONAL STUDIES

REPORT ON JAL SANSAD

13th October, 2019

On October 13th, 2019, students of Institute of vocational studies attended a national awareness and felicitation seminar on the theme “JAL SANSAD: Save Water Save the Earth” at Constitution Club of India organised by NPJSS (Nav Prabhat Jan Sewa Sansthan). The seminar began with the National anthem. The aim of the seminar was to develop awareness and facilitate the people to conserve water for future use. Around 70 to 80 people, including students and teachers of different schools and colleges attended the seminar. The chief guest was Shri Shyam Jaju ji (IAS retd.) and the guest of honour was Shri Ashokji Pradhan. In the seminar, there was a discussion on various questions such as saving the water it's proper use, scarcity, conservation etc. A book named “INNER VOICE” was also launched. Opinions were given by all the three generations. The seminar ended at around 6:15 pm. After that distribution of certificates took place. Refreshment was also provided.

