

National Conference on Education: Crisis & Sustainability Mission for a Better World

(01st November, 2019)

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world”- Nelson Mandela. The quotation gels with the theme of National Conference and justifies the implication of education as an ultimate tool for resolving vivid crisis of swiftly changing world. Development of education has travelled a long way across the world and quantitative expansion of education has forced re- structuring of entire education system, still there is a need to introduce more innovative practices to make education more worthwhile at all levels.

Institute of Vocational Studies, a pioneer institution in teacher education organized the National Conference on the theme, “Education: Crisis & Sustainability Mission for a Better World” on 01st November, 2019 under the esteemed guidance of Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal IVS. The inaugural address was presented by Prof. Mohd. Miyan, an esteemed personality in education. He highlighted the challenges and sustainability issues in current scenario and also proposed to magnify education as a powerful weapon in coping up such issues.

Keynote address of conference was presented by Prof. Sangeeta Chauhan, GGSIP University. She meticulously discussed various innovative pedagogies in the light of NEP 2019 (Draft) and quality assurance in education. She further highlighted the role of media not only as a medium of communication but as an effective tool of sustainability and socio- economic upliftment too.

During two technical sessions different scholars from Al- Falah University, Aligarh Muslim University, Jamia Millia Islamia, MANUU, University of Delhi, Amity University, NIEPA and many more institutions presented the research papers. New Education Policy 2019 (Draft), Scientific Temperament and Education, Women Empowerment and Skill Development, Innovative Teaching Practices, Digital Education and Quality Assurance in Education were the major highlights of conference. The conference witnessed critical discussion on significant issues and provoked deep thoughts in the minds of audience.

The conference significantly enriched everyone and proved to be a grand success.
